A Note From Our Executive Director, Patti Harris

Good Morning Beautiful SCWN Ladies!

This is the day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Dear SCWN Membership,
The Lord has lead me to step down from the position of leadership of SCWN as Executive Director. He has a new assignment for me, however, I will still be participating in SCWN as a member and on the Advisory Board . I will not be really leaving the ministry. It has been a wonderful year and it has been awesome to see where God has taken us together. The Lord has allowed us to accomplish so much in this ministry and it is with regret that I leave. But I know that the Lord is with SCWN and its mission to serve the working women of Chattanooga and He has my replacement already in mind.

May Christ's light continue to shine through the ministry of SCWN. I look forward to seeing you at the April luncheon.

Effective immediately the Board and myself are canvassing for a new Executive Director and would like any suggestions you may have. It is a part-time position--24 hours a week.

Have a blessed week and remember to share the love of Christ in the marketplace daily!

Thank you so much for your support of SCWN!

Serving Christ Together!

heart and she let nothing get in her way. Overcoming obstacles and letting her actions outspoke her criticism. She wasn't an overnight sensation but labored 30 years in her service to the poor before being recognized for her efforts. Her servant leadership is an example for us all to follow

Name: Kim Hencke

Occupation: I am an Accounting Specialist at Signal Centers, Inc.

Family: My husband Fred is a consultant with Xerox and my daughter Sarah is a senior at Georgetown College in Kentucky. She will graduate in May.

Years Involved with SCWN: I think it's been about five years but I'm not exactly sure.

Most memorable experience with SCWN: I love attending the monthly lunches with my friend Cindy Walker and look forward to our "catch up" sessions. Also, I love the almost electric atmosphere in the room when a group of Christian women are gathered together to encourage and uplift one another.

What do you like to do in your spare time? I love to read "cozy mystery" books and watch a lot of old Murder She Wrote and Columbo episodes. I also find working with numbers relaxing and love to balance my checkbook.

Who is a woman that inspires you and why? My mother Carol and my mother-in-law Doris have encouraged and inspired me as long as I can remember. They are both strong Christian women who love the Lord. They have provided tireless and life-long service to their churches and to their families. Both exemplify the title of "Servant-Leader" in my eyes, and I love them both for the wonderful role models they provide. I seek their wisdom and guidance often regarding important decisions in my life and that of my family.
