A NOTE FROM RENEE NAIL, SCWN EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Good morning Ladies,

I am writing to share with you exciting news. This month Scenic City Women's Network will begin strategic planning, charting the course for the next 3 years. It is a time where we will look back over the last 25 years, learning from the past and looking toward the future for growth, development and greater impact in the lives of those we serve.

The Scriptures tell us that we are to "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you". Matthew 7:7

We are excited about the possibilities of growth and expansion of SCWN! This will be a time of great exploration and expectation. As we begin this important process, we start with prayer, the backbone of SCWN. We invite you to join us in prayer as we seek His wisdom and direction.

YOU are a part of who we are and your prayers are vital! Many of you have been asked to complete a survey about SCWN and its programs. We will carefully consider your responses as we plan and look ahead.

For the month of August, will you pray for Yvonne and me, the Board, and the organization as a whole?

Your prayers are much needed. Psalm 127 tells us that "Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain".

This is the Lord's ministry, we are His stewards to carry forth His mission.

Praying expectantly,
Renee

“For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.” (Ephesians 2:10, TNIV)

THE PIG AND ACORN

One day, a pig was fervently eating acorns under an oak tree. When the supply started waning, the pig became so enamored with finding more acorns that he began rooting around in the dirt, exposing the roots of the tree.

A crow landed on a nearby limb and saw what the pig was doing. The crow said to the pig: “You shouldn’t do that. If you expose the roots, the tree will die.”

The pig continued rooting and replied, “Let it die. Who cares as long as there are acorns?!”

The pig forgot acorns only come from living trees.

We can sometimes forget the long-term impact of our decisions and simply act on whatever we feel and see at the moment. This can be detrimental to projects or relationships or goals. Take a moment and think about your actions before you take them this week to your community and home.
